Barbara Faulk Williams White

Barbara Faulk Williams White was born in Monroe, Louisiana to Jack and Virginia Williams and lived most of her life in Birmingham, Alabama. She attended public school at Edgewood Elementary, Homewood Junior High and graduated from Shades Valley High School in 1961 and The University of Alabama in 1965. Mrs. White has one sister, Marion, who is her best friend and also a high school librarian. Miss Williams married Frank White in 1973 and not only got a husband but three children, Steven, Chris and Paige, as well.

Mrs. White taught one year in Birmingham at Greenwood Junior High where she was librarian and Civics teacher. She moved to New Orleans in 1966 and was librarian at Sam Barthe School for Boys for 14 years where she started the library. She combined the Sam Barthe library with the Ecole Classique library in 1979 and then she came to us in 1980 as librarian at Hancock North Central, which moved to the Kiln site in 1990 and became Hancock High School. Mrs. White was one of the two people who suggested Hancock High as the name for the new high school.

While at Hancock, Mrs. White has sponsored the Quiz Bowl team, the HHS News Team, at one time was the Student Council sponsor, and has been a long time Senior Sponsor. Mrs. White was active in the GED program as night school teacher and then secretary for the program. During the 25 years of Mrs. White's tenure, she is proudest of taking us into the computer age with the use of Circulation Plus as our circulation and card catalog program. For years, Mrs. White taped all the Senior graduation activities and bought many of the computers in the library with the funds generated from the sale of the tapes.

Mrs. White is moving back to Birmingham when she retires at the end of May, 2005. She plans to spend time gardening, reading, traveling and playing with her grandchildren, Elizabeth and Gabrielle, who live in Birmingham, and Madison and Michael, who live in Denver, Pennsylvania. Her first trip after retirement will be two weeks in London at Thanksgiving, 2005.

Star Student and Teacher Award

Mr. Keene L. Golding and James Breitner

Essentially, the Star Teacher is far more important than the Star Student. To acquire the Star Student award I merely received a higher test score than anyone else in my class. However, the Star Teacher rose above every other teacher I have encountered. These teachers are already ahead of average people, sacrificing their lives to educate others. They do not receive sufficient pay for their work during the school day, still they spend much of their free time at home planning lessons, grading papers, and working to help their students learn. I selected Mr. Golding to be Star Teacher for these qualities as well as his impact on me in other aspects. His moral and ethical values are significant elements that set him apart. I have encountered few people who possess as solid of principles. Along with his values, I respect Mr. Golding for his teaching techniques. He does not rely on heavy workloads to teach his subject matter. He lets the individual students decide what they want to get out of his class. To sum it up, during the time I have been his student I have learned a great deal more from him than just academic subjects. I am certain that he will remain one of the most influential people I have ever met.

- James Breitner

Being chosen as Star Teacher would be an honor at any school. However, to be seen as a star among the faculty at Hancock High School is particularly an honor. The highest honor however, is not being selected but, rather, who did the selecting. To be selected by someone that I hold in as high regard as I do James, is the real honor. James doing well on the ACT is but one reason he is a Star Student in my eyes. What is most impressive about James is that he sees the world around him with a clarity that is not only rare among today's student body, it is rare among the populous. I would like to think that James has learned a greate deal over the three semesters that he has been in my classroom. However, if this is at all true, it is because James had an intrinsic desire to learn that makes him easily taught. I have no doubt that James' clarity of thought and desire to seek knowledge will ensure him a successful future. Furthermore, it is James and students like him that give me faith in all our futures. It is with great pride that I call myself James Breitner's teacher.

- Keene L. Golding

Class of 2005 Hall of Fame

Hancock High School's Hall of Fame represents a select group of senior students who have outstanding academic records, leadership skills, character, citizenship, and community service. No more than 5% of the senior class is accepted into the Hall of Fame.

Thomas Donaldson

Thomas Donaldson is an Eagle Scout who has distinguished himself at Hancock High School by serving as president of both the National Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta. In addition, Thomas was captain of both the swim team and the soccer team. Thomas' academic achievements have earned him the Superintendent's Honor Roll and numerous awards for Outstanding Academic Achievement as well as the Yale Book Award. Thomas' favorite memory of high school is physics class with Mr. Golding. Thomas' thoughts on being selected for Hall of Fame: "It is an honor." What he will miss most about high school: friends and sports. He is looking forward to starting a new chapter in his life. The biggest lesson he learned in high school: procrastination is bad. Thomas would most like to be remembered by his classmates as "funny, smart, and level-headed." Thomas' famous last words are "life is short, live it up." Next year, Thomas plans to attend Mississippi State University and major in physics with a minor in computer science.

Danny Lee

While at Hancock, Danny Lee has been involved in band, Beta Club, FBLA, FCA, Student Council, National Honor Society, and the National Technical Honor Society. He has earned the Band Service Award and the Academic Achievement Award for Mississippi Studies. Danny has been named to the National Honor Roll and to Who's Who Among American High School Students. Danny is an All American Scholar who has also earned the National Leadership and Service Award. Danny's favorite high school memory is the 2005 band Disney trip. Being chosen for the Hall of Fame has been a long-time goal and Danny feels it is a real honor to have been selected. Although he is looking forward to meeting new people, Danny will miss football games, friends and band at Hancock High School. Danny would like to be remembered by his classmates as friendly, detemined and intelligent. The biggest lesson he learned in high school: Never Give Up! Danny's famous last words are "With effort, anything is possible." Danny plans to attend Mississippi State University and major in architecture.

Erica "Shugg" Moran

For the last 4 years Erica has been on the Prinicpal's Honor Roll and a member of the Sadd/Frontline club and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. In addition, she has served on the prom and homecoming committees and is a member of the History and Government Club. Erica has served as class secretary as a sophomore, junior and senior. Erica has worked for 2 years with the Tutoring and Mentorship Program and has participated in the Secretary of State Internship Voting Program. Erica has been a member of the high school track team for the last 5 years and has excelled in the discus throw winning district and regional titles as well as placing 2nd in district and 5th in the state in 2004. As a member of the Lady Hawks basketball team, Erica has been part of a Big 10 Conference Championship in the 9th grade and a State Championship in 2004 where she was named "Most Outstanding Post Player." As a senior, Erica is the starting center for the Lady Hawks and was named an "All Tournament" player in both the Pass Christian and Hancock tournaments. Erica is currently coaching the Lakeshore 2 - 8 and 9 year old girl's basketball team. ("Go Lady Bulldogs!) Erica's favorite memory: The Senior boycott of Homecoming Week. Erica would like to be remembered as ambitious, spontaneous, outgoing, caring, and successful. What she will miss most aobut high school: The basketball team, Kate Sullivan's never ending friendship, and the "everlasting and heart-felt friendship she found in Joshua. The biggest lesson she learned in high school: To get respect you not only have to earn it, you have to give it.

Katherine J. Sullivan

Katherine was chosen as an Outstanding Senator at the 2004 YMCA Youth Legislature, Katherine was a U.S. Senate Page under Thad Cochran in 2044 and was a U.S. Youth Program Scholarship finalist. Katherine won 1st place at the state level of the VFW Voice of Democracy Contest and won the Creative Communications Young Writers Contest and will be published in the anthology What is Important to Me? She has been a member of the NHS, the National Spanish Honor Society, the Mississippi Math and Science Tournament Team, The Mississippi Coastal Blasts College Exposure Fast-pitch Softball team, the National Ocean Sciences Bowl Team captain), and is the president of the Beta Club. Katherine has been included in Who's Who Among American High School Students, the National Honor Roll, and was selected as Most Intellectual for Hancock's Who's Who. Katherine has been awarded the United States Achievement Academy's National Leadership Merit Award and All-American Scholar Award and has been named an Outstanding Student of America. What she will miss most about high school: classmates and teachers. "I have had the privilege of being taught by phenomenal educators. I will definitely miss lunch with Emma Harris and all her Napoleon Dynamite impressions." Katherine wants to be remembered as the "girl who is going places." "I don't want to be remembered as the 'smart girl' because that is not who I am ... Most importantly I want to be remembered as the young lady who followed her dreams all the way to the White House." Katherine plans to attend either the University of Mississippi or St. Louis College of Pharmacy and wants to become a pharmaceutical researcher and developer.

Elizabeth White

Elizabeth is a member of the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Future Educators of America, History and Government Club, and the National Spanish Honor Society. She has been included in the National Honor Roll and Who's Who Among American High School Students and has been named an All-American Scholar. Elizabeth attended Girl's State. Elizabeth is captain of the high school dance team and was named an American All Star. Her favorite memories of high school are all of her trips she has taken with her closest friends on the dance team. Elizabeth will most miss Friday night football games and Dance Team, but she is looking forward to moving ahead. Elizabeth would like to be remembered by her classmates as someone who was always willing to help. The biggest lesson she learned in high school was "you can't please everyone. !' Words of wisdom: No matter what obstacles life throws in your way, never give up on your dreams. Elizabeth plans to attend Pearl River Community College and the University of Southern Mississippi and major in biological sciences.

"Challenges are what makes life interesting; overcoming them is what makes life meaningful."

As seniors, we now realize that the meaning of life is not only overcoming challenges, but is also making friendships, learning from our mistakes, capturing memories, and creating paths to our futures.

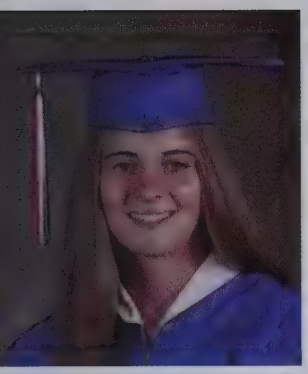

Once as Freshman, we dreaded walking down the halls of high school. New unfamiliar faces quickly became new friends and new opportunities for learning began to appear. The fears we felt in 9th grade turned out to be unfounded, and we began planning for the future.

As Sophomores we had just started having fun. We gained new responsibilities such as preparing our school for a wonderful homecoming. These challenges helped us to begin developing confidence, forming stronger circles of friends, and realizing that we could accomplish anything.

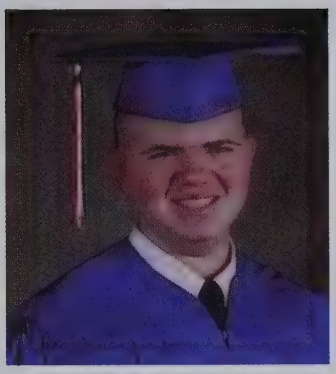

When we became Juniors we realized that there was still much to be done with the reality of knowing that our last year was soon to come. We learned the importance of how a GPA and the ACT would impact our futures.

Now, as the graduating class of 2005, we realize that we have accomplished so much; we have overcome our fears, formed lifelong friendships, created memories, and laid the foundation for a wonderful future. Remember ... No matter which path in life we take, it is never going to be what we expected it to be, but the challenges that it creates make life interesting; it is up to us to make it meaningful.

In Memory of ...

Graduation is a time for parents to face their biggest fear, knowing their little boy or girl is truly growing up and preparing to face the world and all it has to offer. But more importantly it is a time to show our loved ones just how truly proud we are of what they've accomplished. Although you are not here with us at this milestone moment, we want you to know that you did make us proud by being who you were, a caring, compassionate, and thoughtful young man. Someone so full of life and laughter whose love for family, friends, and God were remarkable and will never be forgotten.

We just wanted to take this time to show our pride in you and express to you how lucky we are to have called you our son, brother, family, and friend.

Junior Class Officers: Destiny Pascual (Secretary), LeAnn Ladner (Vice-President), Erin Dugat (Treasurer), Heather Ladner (Prom Chairgirl), and Meghan Lee (President).

We are almost there! This year, our Junior year of high school, is one of the most important times of our lives. Not only do we have the exciting task of creating an unforgetable prom for the seniors, but we also must begin mapping out our future plans and goals. With college just around the corner, it is time to prepare ourselves for the real world, believe it or not. Get ready Class of 2006!

(sŏf'ə-môr',-mōn') sophos- wise, moros- stupid,

As sophomores, we are finally accustomed to the "high school life" and begin to realize how close graduation really is. We also become more involved and begin thinking more about our future. This is a year of learning many new things, not only academically, but in relationships and in life in general. I wish you the best of luck and hope to see you all at the graduation of the class of 2007!

Freshmen-

(frĕsh'mən) one who is lowest in rank, newcomer, beginner or a rookie

Dear Freshman class of 2008

This year has been great, and sharing it with all of you just made it even better. Like a family we have worked together to make this school an amazing place to be, to love, and to learn. Even though we were the babies this year we all fit in very well. This has been a wonderful start to our high school career thanks to a wonderful staff of teachers and administrators. A special thanks must go out to my fellow 9th grade class officers. All of you are great students and hopefully you will continue to be a spectacular class. Congratulations on your first year in high school and good luck to the future class of 2008!

Your class president and friend,
Jill Marie Debenport

Job Shadow/Living Skills students attend academic classes during the 1st half of the school day and then leave campus at 11:45 for work experience. Students work at sites in the community and are involved in community service. Living Skills offer students a chance to experience cooking and shopping and expose them to state and local government. Students gain practical training and knowledge that they will use afer graduation. These students can always be counted on to help out any organization or staff member at H.H.S.

Whenever I think of my favorite
Friend, my heart smiles once, then
Over again. If one of us hurts, the
Other is there; If one has no money,
The other will share. If one has a
Problem and can't find the way, the
Other is there with Something to say.
There's no doubt about it, I know I am
Blessed to have found a sweet friend
Who is truly the BEST!

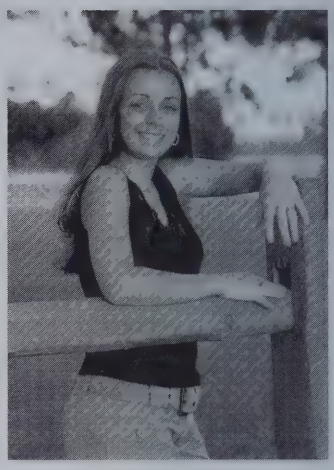

Brittany,

I had fun getting to know
You this year, you are a
Really great person and friend!
Thanks for all of the good
Times! Hope everything goes
The way you plan in life!
Have fun and be safe!
I Love You!

On May 1, 1987 God gave to us a wonderful son with good looks, intelligence, and lots of muscles. We are so very proud of you, and now we must let you go to become a young man. We will always cherish all the good times and bad times together as a family. I know we have taught you well, so show the world and God who you are. Believe in yourself and trust in God to show you the way. We love you with all our hearts and always will no matter what.

To Our Loving Daughter Rachael,

Time has come and passed so quickly You have grown from a playful little Angel, to a beautiful, bright young lady. Your personality, intelligence, and your will to do whatever you want will lead you to better places. The road to success is open for you, We had good times, we had sorrowful times, but they were all loving times. As the future years approach, you are wished all the happiness and success you deserve. Don't ever forget that we have always loved you and always will. You were precious then and even more precious now. As you begin your journey seeking your future life, may God be with you and remember that we will be there for you. As our daughter, you have made us very proud.

Love you with all our hearts,
Mom & Dad

Leana,

You are on your way! I have watched you grow from a baby to a young woman. From giving you advice on how to live and how to behave when you are with your "boyfriend," you are a granddaughter to be very proud of. I know you're going to touch other people's lives as you have touched mine and your family. Keep God first Leana. I wish your granddaddy could see you baby, he would be proud of you too! CONGRATULATIONS!!!!!

I love you,

I remember it like it was yesterday,
It was the year of '92".
It was your first day of kindergarten,
I thought I'd never make it thru.
You had lil' brown locks of curly hair,
And polka dotted clothes,
Lil' pink, velcro shoes, and a funny lil' pose.
The way you giggled made me laugh,
I loved the way your eyes would shine,
I knew you were a gift from God,
I was so proud you were mine.
The years have flown by, and now you've grown,
You grew into a beautiful young lady,
And soon you will be on your own.
It is now "2005", your graduating year,
I watched my lil' girl grow into a woman,
Through happiness and tears.
To that once lil' girl, who is now a senior,
We just want to say "WE WILL BE HERE FOR YOU" no matter what,
And to say "WE LOVE YOU" very much!
Love,
Mama & Daddy

Leana,

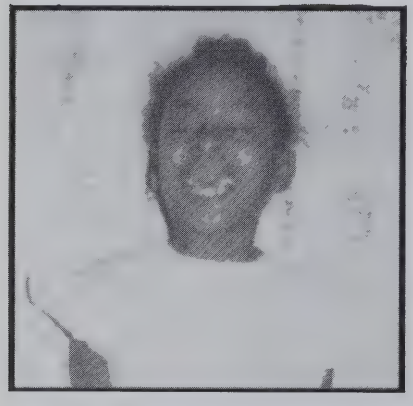

It's hard to believe you are going to graduate! We are proud of you Leana. I would always say to you that you are a special person, and I always prayed you believed me. When I look back over the years, Pumpkin, I don't know how I would have made it without you. That may seem strange coming from your mom. When I got sick you stepped in with a big smile. Thank you Leana, you are a strong woman that has become someone your family admires. You mean so much to us honey, we love you. The time has come for that strong woman to live a wonderful blessed life. Always love and have faith in God. You are going to become whatever it is you have in your heart.

Brittany (Angel Love),

Time has passed so quickly. It seems like just the other day you made the remark that you never wanted to grow up. Well you have grown into a young woman with a mind of her own. It is time for you to move on and to enter the next stage of your life, adulthood. It will be a time to make difficult decisions that will no doubt affect your life forever. Just as the book is titled, "Give Them Wings", it is clear that you have outstretched your own wings. Think of where you may be going and where you come from so that you don't forget your way back should you venture afar.

Just remember "No bird soars too high if he soars with his own wings"
- William Blake

With love and memories,
Mom and Dad

Brittany,

I am very happy that I am your sister. You are a remarkable young woman who has her whole life ahead of her. I know you are going to do great things. Just don't lose yourself, keep God and family first. Always strive to achieve all your goals. I love you and am very proud for you.

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your life. We are all very proud of you and look forward to witnessing many wonderful things that you will be blessed to accomplish. Be sure to keep Psalm 1 - 3 NIV close to your heart and it will certainly help you get to the next accomplishment in your lie.

Blessed is the man (woman) who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he mediates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by seams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whateve he (she) does prospers.

To Ashley,

We feel that we are the most Blessed parents around. God Blessed us with you and Nicholas. He gave us two wonderful miracles to nurture and love for a lifetime, although we don't know how long that will be. We love you both very much.

Your beautiful brown eyes sparkle like diamonds. Your captivating smile brings a glow into the room that is bright as the sun. Your dance and love for dance is a grace received from above. You are an exceptional gift, one that is as beautiful as a rosy sunset that has every color of the spectrum glowing throughout. You are a beautiful young woman who knows what she wants in life. Now is the time for you to spread your wings and soar like an eagle. Go out into the world, build your future, and enjoy life. Always keep God first in your life and everything will be fine.

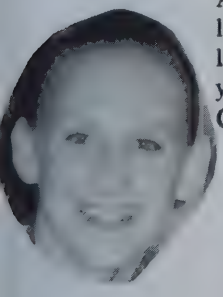

God the Father loves you unconditionally. God the Son, Jesus, is truly your very best friend. He will never turn His back on you or use you like earthly friends. Remember, he walked here on earth and knows how difficult life is, trust Him. God the Holy Spirit is always there to enlighten you, to give you knowledge, wisdom, courage, strength, and much more. He will lead and guide you through life every step of the way if you ask Him and listen for His answers. Remember God is not pushy; you must ask Him into your life and ask Him for what you want. Be true to Him and honor Him always. He is a forgiving God, no matter what. He has the perfect blueprint mapped out for your life. Seek His will and you will live a life full of love, joy, and peace.

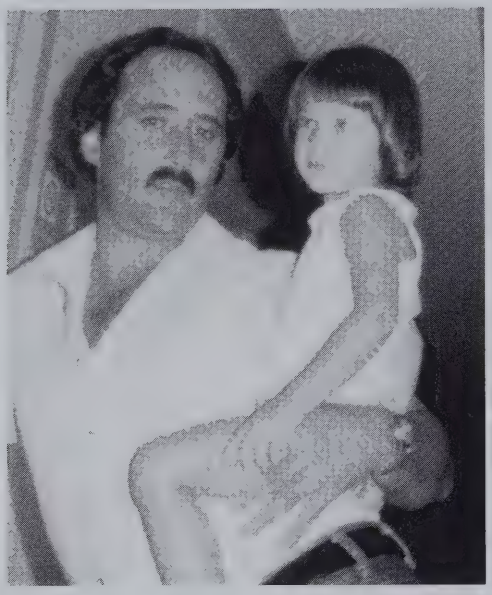

Ashley, may you strive to become more Christ like as you grow and walk through life and live your life so that all people will see Christ shining through you in all that you do. The life of a Christian is not easy here on earth, but the eternal rewards are awesome. We love you and we will stand beside throughout life. It is very difficult to let you go, but we must. Good luck in all that you do & remember that we love you!

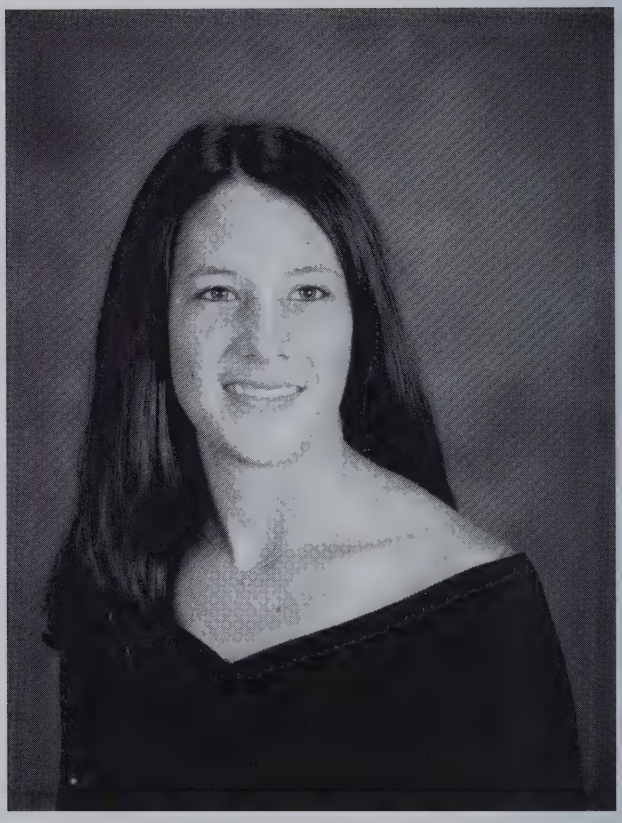

Love, Mom, Dad, & Nicholas

Spirals of Time

I saw you from my window today,
As I looked through the "Spirals of Time."
You skipped and tumbled, ran and played,
In a make believe world designed for a childhood rhyme.

The sun shined through your long brown hair.
Your smile was glistening and bright,
You pretended to pour tea for Kitty and Bear,
You cared not the day had slipped away and yielded to the night.

A breeze swept the tree leaves above where you once stood,
Which took me from that site.
It took me to a different span, one that continued with delight.
Determination and skill was instilled in your face,
Your smiles had turned more serious now.
I saw a child prepared to capture her place,
Surrounded by purpose, the stage was set,
You were ready to take your bow.

Church, and family events,
School, ballgames, karate, training, and friends,
Enter-twined on a regular occurrence,
Each in it's own proper place,
However, you gave allegiance to all without a hint of disturbance.

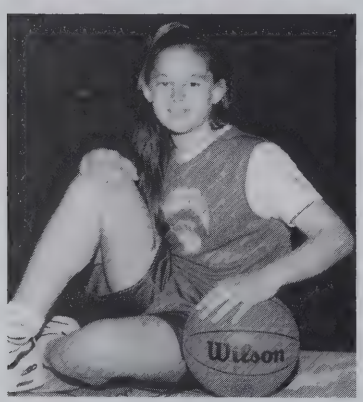

The "Spirals of Time" have not yet come to fruition,
Your plans have only escalated to another plateau.
The shadow of a child that once was,
Has given way to a young woman of position,
With opportunities to explore and unfold.

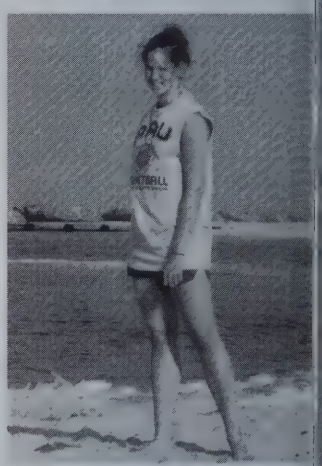

The young woman I see now,
Stands poised ready to meet each new challenge,
With the same steadfast determination as yesterday.
She's strong, she's sweet, she's kind and complete,
In-other-words,
"She's Perfection in Action."

As I glance at her through the "Spirals of Time,"
Encased forever within my heart,
I'm prepared to stand by her side in prayer and devotion,
In whatever journey she decides to embark.

"Dreams" by Langston Hughes

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

Steven Wayne Pollard II

To my son;
If only half the people in life had to endure what you have had to endure in life, they would see the man that I see. You have made me so very proud to call you "MY SON" and I love you very much. My wish for you in life is to be happy and do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Always think twice before doing anything to make sure it is the right choice. Always lend a helping hand and never turn your back on your friends. You have grown to be a strong and loving man, and I thank God everyday for you.
I Love You,
Mom

I say this because I know what I am planning for you," says the Lord. "I have good plans for you, not plans to hurt you. I will give you hope and a good future."

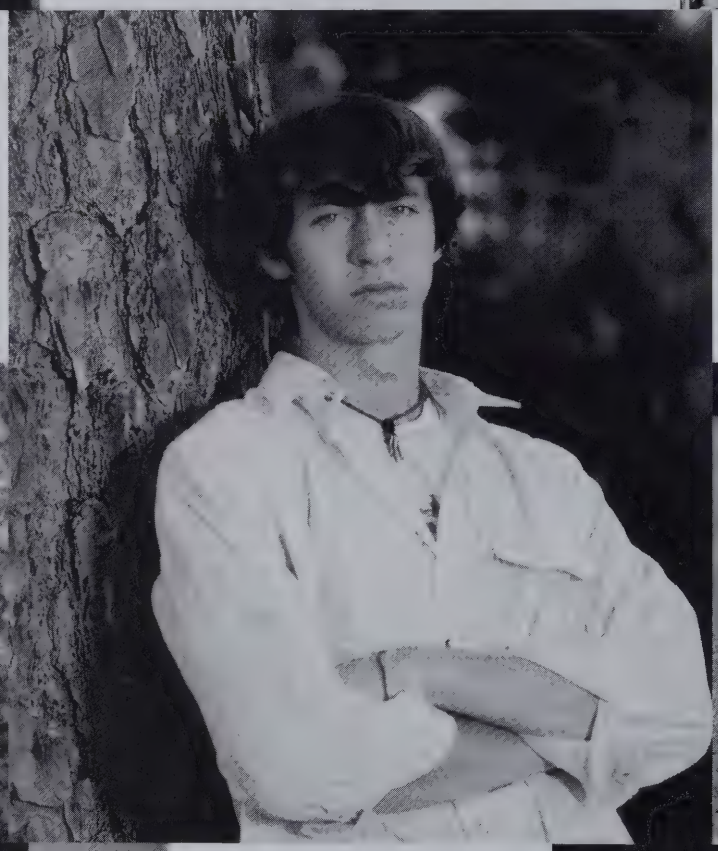

Jeremiah 29:11

Dear J

You bring so much to our lives - immeasurable amounts of love, laughter, and pride. We are so proud of the outstanding young man you have become. As you enter this next phase of life continue to keep God first, as He will guide your way.

We love you,
Daddy and Moma

Justin,

Congratulations! You know you mean the world to me and I love you with all my heart. Thanks for always being there for me in good and bad times. You're the best big brother I could ever ask for. Good luck in college!

I love you,

OUR BABY IS A SENIOR

Ashley, it's hard to believe you are graduating. We don't know where the years have gone, but now comes the hardest part.....letting you go. Always remember, life is too short to have regrets, and life is too short to wonder "What If" or "I Should Have". Live life to the fullest and follow your dreams. I know with your strength and your determination whatever you decide to do and wherever your path may lead you, you will succeed. We LOVE you sooo much!!
Daddy, Momma, Kayla and Holley

No matter how grown up you become, you will always be "MY BABY" . I will always be here for you. I love you with all my heart.....Momma

Our Sister Cheri',

We will always be there for you as we know you will be there for us . Good luck in college!

We love you
Leanne ,Jasen,& Lena

Angel,

It is hard to believe you are graduating. Where did all the time go? It seems like just yesterday you were born and now the time has come to let you adventure out into the world on your own. Even though we have spent the first eighteen years of your life preparing for this day, when it finally gets here we realize that we are not as ready as we thought we would be. We know deep down in our hearts that you will do well because you are a wonderful person and have alot of goals to strive for. WE ARE VERY PROUD OF YOU ANGEL! So to our loving daughter we wish you the BEST of luck!!!!

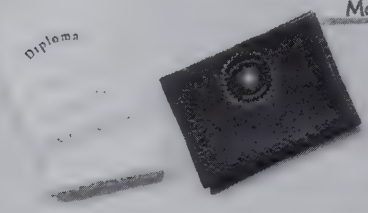

"LOVE ALWAYS"
Daddy, Momma, Courtney & Colby

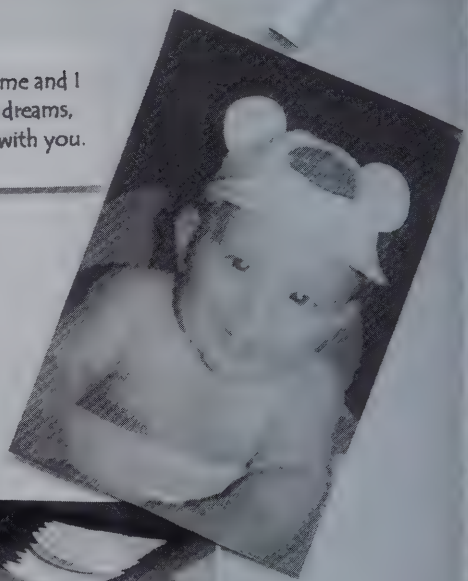

Derrick,

It seems like just a little while ago you raised your tiny head and smiled at me for the first time and I smiled back with tears. I loved you so much then. Though you are older now, living your dreams, pursuing your own goals I still look at your beautiful smile to know that things are all right with you. I am so very proud of you and I love you even MORE now!

LOVE ALWAYS,
Mom, Dad, & Daniel

Daddy & Mommy,
I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!

LOVE,
Hunter

MATTHEW

At the early age of two when you were chosen from the audience at Disney to perform on stage at the Wild West Show your destiny to entertain and act had begun. Through the years you have continued to entertain us with your adventures in theater as well as your writings. Many have noticed your talents but cannot be as proud of you as your family. Continue on your adventures and dreams of being a screenwriter as well as movie director. You have the talent to enterain the world with your ideas and we look forward to the day when we see on the big screen, "Producer: Matt Cannon". Wherever your adventures take you just remember we Love You and will always be your number One fans. There is only one thing Mom asks of you. When the time comes to walk the red carpet on your way to the Oscars, Mom needs a designer dress.

We Love You Always,

My darling daughter,

I remember the first time you wore a graduation gown. You were only five years old. It only seems like yesterday, my little girl was laughing and playing, a little girl who needed her mother. Now you are wearing a graduation gown for the second time, only now it's twelve years later. You have a become a beautiful young woman who lights up any room with her smile. Just remember I will be here whenever you need me. You will always be my little girl. Congratulations. I love you.

Memory is a way of holding onto the things you love, the things you are, the things you never want to lose.

Sasha ... Our first impression of you was, "Oh, my gosh - this girl is such a beauty queen." However, as time went by, we learned that there is more to you than just lip gloss and high heels. You are truly the sweetest and most positive person who ever walked this earth!

Leana ... The first day we stepped into the door we must admit we were a little intimidated by you. Okay, maybe a lot. But as we got to know you we immediately found out that you were not so bad after all, and we realized that the intimidation that was there was just your great leadership.

Jenn ... From the beginning you have been fun and outgoing. Being our co-editor, you have taught us much, from cropping and measuring to friends and relationships. We owe you bunches! Best of luck to you and Sean.

Brittany ... Since the start, you have always been the most quiet. Although we did not hear much out of you, your completed pages "speak for you". When the rest of us are being lazy, you are the one to offer to do our share.

Allison... At first we thought you were "Miss Popular" - cheerleader, class president, homecoming maid, and the list goes on. Though once we got to know you, we found so much more. Now, we see you as just one of us ... but with pom poms.

Maressa ... You are another that we do not hear much from. It is not because you do not talk, it is because you are constantly running errands for all of us. You always pick up our slack. You have contributed tons to this year's yearbook and are much appreciated for it!

All of you have taught us many characteristics to help make the staff better for next year. Sasha, with her sweetness; Leana, with her leadership; Jenn, with her teachings; Britt, with her hard work; Alli, with her perfection; and Maressa, with her contributions. We are thankful to have met and shared time with each of you. We have created friendships as well as many memories along the way. We wish the best of luck to you all in the future in whatever path you take. To the Yearbook Class of 2005 - a final farewell, and to the Yearbook Class of 2006 - we have some big shoes to fill!
